Five Upward Bound students receive college scholarships

ROSEMOUNT, Minn. – June 28, 2019 – Five graduating seniors involved with the Upward Bound program at Dakota County Technical College (DCTC) have received significant scholarships to pursue higher education.

Part of the family of Federal TRIO programs, Upward Bound helps students succeed academically by giving them the tools they need to graduate from high school and then enroll and graduate from college.

Funded by the U.S. Department of Education and sponsored by DCTC, the program serves 50 students in grades 9-12 from Henry Sibley and South St. Paul high schools and 60 students from Burnsville High School.

The student are:

Burnsville High School - Soknary Men - The Promise Grant at Augsburg; Selena Sysourath - The Promise Grant at Augsburg; Madisyn Gowans - The Promise Grant/Summer bridge participant at Augsburg

Henry Sibley High School - Vilay Kith–Dell Scholarship

South Saint Paul High School- Ingri Ramirez Martin–The Promise Grant Augsburg and Augsburg SSS Summer Bridge
