DCTC and Inver Hills co-sponsor community career and internship fair

Get a jump start on career in business, information technology or as a paralegal by attending the Dakota County Technical College and Inver Hills Community College Career and Internship Fair. Join us from 3 to 6 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 12 in the Inver Hills Fine Arts Building.

DCTC and Inver Hills offer a powerful and comprehensive range of educational opportunities which contributes $334.6 million in economic impact per year. As partners in developing the region's workforce, the colleges work together to build careers and strengthen communities.

The joint fair provides our student, alumni and the community an opportunity to connect with employers actively hiring, as well as the opportunity to learn more about career advancement through education.

Find employers including Prime Therapeutics, Dakota County, First Judicial District-State of Minnesota, Metropolitan Council and Travelers Insurance and more. Attendees will get face time to learn about individual organizations and in some cases to apply in person directly through human resources staff.

Upon arrival, attendees will receive a handout showcasing the employers and the types of positions they are hiring. This provides attendees the opportunity to seek out the employers who interest them most.

Dress in business attire, bring a resume and join us for this great opportunity. Learn more at:
