

DCTC Policy 2.14 Student Dress

Part 1. Policy Statement.

Dakota County Technical College (DCTC) requires that all students dress in a manner that will not disrupt his/her education or the education, health, and safety of others.

Some programs may require the student to wear a special uniform.

In certain program shops or laboratories, students may be required to wear specific attire such as safety glasses, helmets or other protective clothing.

Students not following the guidelines for dress established in their program area of study, may be sent home to change their clothing, or not allowed to participate if not wearing the required safety attire.
